Descendants of Benjamin Binney

Generation 1

1. Benjamin Binney was born about 1637. He died in 1671. He married Alice about 1656. She was born about 1638. She died in 1665.

   Benjamin Binney and Alice had the following child:

2. i. John Binney was born in 1657 in Hull, Plymouth Colony, Massachusetts, United States. He died on 10 Nov 1698 in Hull, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, United States of America. He married Mercy Stubbs, daughter of Richard Stubbs Sr. and Margaret Reade, in 1679 in Massachusetts, United States. She was born in 1658 in Worksop, Nottinghamshire, England. She died on 19 Jan 1709 in Hull, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, United States of America.

Generation 2

2. John Binney (Benjamin's son) was born in 1657 in Hull, Plymouth Colony, Massachusetts, United States. He died on 10 Nov 1698 in Hull, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, United States of America. He married Mercy Stubbs, daughter of Richard Stubbs Sr. and Margaret Reade, in 1679 in Massachusetts, United States. She was born in 1658 in Worksop, Nottinghamshire, England. She died on 19 Jan 1709 in Hull, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, United States of America.

Notes for John Binney:

Capt John Binney, the American ancestor, with his wife Mercy must have come to Hull, Mass., about 1678 or 9, and with his two oldest sons John, Jr., afterwards deacon of Hull church, and Samuel, with them probably, from Worksop Notts., England, whose nearest seaport of that, and also of Scrooby and Bawtry was Hull. The first entry of marriages, births and deaths on Hull records is by John Loring, the first town clerk of Hull, namely "record of the children born in Hull," and "record of those who have died in Hull."

These records begin in 1693, at which time, by a law of the General Court, the parents handed in the names and dates of birth of all their children born there; John Binney handed in this record, namely: "Mercy daughter to John Binney born Dec. 15, 1782," then follows Isaac 1685, Thomas 1687, Elizabeth, 1690. It is evident from these entries, that John and Samuel, were born elsewhere and were purposely omitted on the records on that account, and they were then lads of the respective ages of 15 and 13 years and would be well known in so small a place as Hull. There are now no church records extant so early, ministers did not then marry people but magistrates did. In 1660 John Prince the elder of Hull church was empowered by General Court to marry persons in Hull as there were no magistrates near there.

The church records under Rev. Zachariah Whitman, from 1660 to 1725, are lost.

If John, the ancestor, was born in 1657 and married in 1678 at about 25 years of age and died in 1698, he would be about 41 years at death; and if his wife Mercy, was 20 at marriage, say in 1678 and was born in 1658, and died in Hull in 1708, she would have been about 50, at death. (Her foot gravestone in Hull, has only "M. B." on it.)

John and Samuel were known to be children of John. Samuel, at death is described as "son of John and Mercy" and John in a deposition of 1710, speaks of "his brother Isaac," and John, when married in Eastham, is described as "John Binney, Junior, of Hull." Deacon John the oldest son, lived and died in Hull, and was the immediate ancestor, after John Senior, of most of the name in America. Samuel, also lived and died in Hull, but his family became extinct in the 4th generation. Isaac, was lost at sea in 1710, probably single. Thomas, lived in Boston, as a merchant, the latter part of his life, and died there but was buried in Hull, where he retained his residence corner of Quaker Lane, opposite the meeting-house, in the house that Wm. Chamberlin the Quaker formerly owned. (The will of Caleb Gould, the husband of Sarah Binney and will of Capt Benj. Binney, of Chestertown, Maryland, for disposition of that estate.) All the sons of John, and most of his grandsons, were sea captains. Mercy eldest daughter of John, whose birth was the first of his children recorded on Hull record as born there, married Nathaniel Baker of Hull; he was son of Samuel and Fear (Robinson,) Baker of Hull, and Barnstable, Mass., Fear R. being a granddaughter of John Robinson, of Leyden and daughter of Isaac R. of Scituate. One of this Mercy's children, was "Binney Baker" Elizabeth daughter of John, married in Hull 1716, George Vickers or Vickere, as indifferently spelled, and died 1725. Thomas was father of Jonathan.
ancestor of the Nova Scotia branch of the name.

John Binney, always wrote and spelled his name as we do, Binney, see his deed and signature 1694 from Hull records No. 5. John Binney was buried in the burial ground in Hull, the site of his and widow Mercy's grave is known, and when his son Deacon John, who died June 30th, 1759, in his 81st year, was buried, his body was placed in his father's grave. A suitable monument or marble headstone has been erected by some or their descendants, and is now over the spot, and in 1883 the lot was raised and arranged by Robert Gould, under the supervision of the writer, by request and at the expense of another descendant of the name.

The cellar of the site of the ancestor John's house has been seen by the writer, it was between the Parsonage house which is yet standing (1883,) and the mansion house, erected by his son Deacon John, on part of the land, and west of it. North-west of the latter house, was the one occupied by Amos Binney Jr., and wife Mary Prentice, the grandparents of the writer, and where his uncle Amos Binney, formerly Navy Agent, Boston, and his brother John, the writer's father, and Miss Sarah Binney, and Mrs. Nancy Copeland, sisters of Amos and John above, were born. This house is of oak and a good one yet and was 1884 occupied by the Postmaster, Mr. Pope. Probably the first settlers were mostly fishermen and also husbandmen and cultivated their lots of land in Hull, as the General Court to encourage the fishery, granted most of the Islands in Boston Harbor, and special privileges to settlers in Hull, for that object.

* We whose names are underwritten, being desired by Marsey Biney Relict of John Biney late of Hull deceased: did apprize as followeth the estate of her said late husband.

Notes for Mercy Stubbs: he was possibly of age before 1677, when John had a wife, Mercy. The several deed-mortgages by their son John Binney to Rebecca Stubbs wife of Richard, indicate a possible relationship. This Binney family ended up with most of the Stubbs land in later years. The Binney Genealogy (1886) gives no clues as to John Binney's wife. If Mercy was 20 in 1677, she would have been the right age to be his wife and married before her father death.

John Binney and Mercy Stubbs had the following children:

Notes for John Binney:
John Binney was chosen deacon of Hull church, Dec. 13, 1734, was owner of pew No. 1 of the 19 pews in the new meeting-house 1732. He was one of the six present, who signed the church covenant after Rev. Ezra Carpenter was ordained at Hull Nov. 24, 1725, at the house of the senior and aged Rev. Zachariah Whitman, the first settled pastor of Hull, who was ordained 1670.

He and wife Hannah were admitted to full communion in Hull church, April 30, 1727.

Deacon John Binney lived in the Binney mansion house, which he probably built between 1700 and 1732, from oak cut on his land, it was afterward occupied by his son Captain Amos Binney, then by his son Spencer Binney, it was finally sold after the death of Spencer Binney's widow to and occupied by John Mitchel some 28 or 30 years, and then sold in 1876 to Mr. Edward Gould Knight, who took it down and built out of part of the timbers, a new house on the site: the frame was perfectly sound; no carpets were used in old times and when the ceiling of the room was torn down showers of fine white beach sand came down on the workmen. A silver pepper box, marked J B H - for John and Hannah Binney, descended to the John Binney Esq., Boston, and is yet owned by one of his sons. There was 26 oz. of silver plate mentioned in Deacon John Binney's inventory. He was town treasurer of Hull, 1732 and 1733, and from 1746 to 1751, and town clerk 1749 to 1753, clerk of the market 1743 to 1748, selectman 1721 and 1722, 1731, 1735, 1739, 1742, 1744, 1749 and 1751, and also assessor. His pay as treasurer in 1751, was 40 J. a year!

Hon. Horace Binney', of Aug. 7, 1873 sa. "Deacon John Binney is an ancestor I am very proud of, I want no better one than him. I have a Woodrow in the maternal line at the same distance, thorough Scotch, of the blood of the Historian of the Covenanters, from whom came my maternal grandmother, who lived to the age of 91, I shall be glad to see her again, as I saw her and was so much delighted with her shrewdness and 'savoir faire,' when I was a law student."

 "Eunice Binney Sprague, daughter of Dr. John (8) and Hannah Binney, born about 1726(?) in Hull, married about 1750, Silas Sprague, then of Lebanon, CT., where her sister Mary (Binney) Baldwin went. Silas Sprague was born in Lebanon, CT., January 3, 1727, and died September 1808, and was probably son of Benjamin Sprague and second wife, Abigail Hill or (Tisdale) Sprague, Taunton. Benjamin Sprague having married first, Mary Woodworth, December 29, 1797; and had several children in Lebanon, CT. Silas Sprague was a captain in the Revolutionary army.

 There is some doubt whose daughter Eunice Binney was, as some of the leaves of Hull Records are missing, and there appears a neglect in entering some items for several years. The first news of her was from Richard Soule, Jr., of Boston, "Memorials of the Sprague family gathering in Duxbury," published Boston, 1847, in which he distinctly stated, that Silas Sprague married Eunice Binney, but has no further mention of her. From the similarity of names of part of his children"
