Notes for Jacob Green Sr.:

General Notes:

The Greenfield Argus May 30, 1919

Jacob Green was born in Applesheim, Darmstadt, Germany, January 13, 1837, and died at his home in Greenfield, May 26, 1919, following a three weeks' illness, aged 82 years, 4 months and 13 days. He immigrated to America in 1854 and in 1861 volunteered to defend the flag of his adopted country. He was a veteran volunteer of the 61st Illinois volunteer infantry, Company B, and was with them in the battles of Corinth, Shiloh, Murphyeesboro and other mighty conflicts of the Civil War. He was wounded and lay by in a field hospital, yet when his wound was sufficiently healed he was on duty again and ready for orders. The writer read on the reverse side of a photograph of his captain these words:

"To his old friend and comrade, Co B, 61st Illinois veteran volunteers: As good a soldier as ever shouldered a musket: one who was always ready for a fight: on duty from 1861 to 1865. This photograph is sent in remembrance of his fidelity and loyalty to his friend and captain of long ago. S. T. Carrico."

Deceased was married to Christiana Meng in September, 1866. To this union were born seven children. The wife and two daughters, Elizabeth and Emma, preceded him in death. Those that are living are John, Mrs. Louisa Murray, Charles and Phillip, all of Greenfield and Jacob, of Tracy, Minn. There are 16 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Deceased was a member of the German Evangelical church, being confirmed according to the ritual of that church in 1851. He had been a respected citizen of this city for many years. So passes another member of the G. A. R. Another mound awaits the garlands of love and devotion on Decoration day. All honor to the brave men who carried our banner to the ends of the earth. Let us keep green their graves and bright the memory of their heroic sacrifices in keeping unsullied the banner of a great and free nation, the insignia of their unwavering patriotism. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon by Rev. W. W. Henry and the interment was in the Oakwood cemetery under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which he had been a devoted and faithful member for many years.

General Notes:

The Greenfield Argus March 29, 1912

Mrs. Jacob Green, one of Greenfield's well known German residents, died at her home in the western part of Greenfield, on Saturday, March 23, 1912, at 2 p. m., after an extended illness, aged seventy years, five months and twenty- four days. Her maiden name was Christiana Meng, she having been born September 29, 1841, in Kaelberfield, Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, Germany. In May, 1863, at the request of her brother, Fred Meng, she, in company with her two youngest brothers, George and Charles Meng, left Germany and came to America, arriving at the home of their brother in August of the same year, they having been on board ship fifty-three days in crossing the Atlantic ocean. She kept house for her brother, Fred Meng, who then lived 7 1/2 miles east of Greenfield, near the old Bethel church. In 1866 she was married to Jacob Green. They lived on a farm west of Greenfield until the spring of 1871, when they removed to Greenfield where they have ever since resided. Seven children were born of this union, four boys and three girls, all of whom are living except the youngest daughter, Lizzie, who died at the age of ten years. Mrs. Green is survived by her husband, four sons, John, Charles, Phillip, and Jacob, Jr., all of this city, two daughters, Mrs. Louisa Murray, of this city, and Mrs.

Emma Juergens, of St. Louis, four brothers, Fred and Charles Meng, of this city, Christ Meng, of Gardner, Kan., and George Meng, of Paola, Kan., and one sister, Ernstine Hartmann, still back in Germany. Eleven years ago Mrs. Green and two of her brothers, Fred and Christ Meng, journeyed back to the Faderland to visit her sister and other acquaintances of their childhood days.

Mrs. Green was a hard working woman, industrious and economical, and had always enjoyed most vigorous health until she lost her youngest daughter, which seems to have shattered her strong constitution. She had suffered from neuralgia for twenty years and growing worse she was forced to abandon hard work several years ago. A complication of diseases set in, which caused her great suffering during the latter part of her life, but Death came and released her from her bed of pain. The deceased was a member of the Lutheran church in Germany, but never united with any church in this country.

Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church by Rev. N. V. Andrews on Monday, March 25, at 2 p. m. the interment was in the North cemetery.

Notes for Charles Charley Green:

General Notes:

The Greenfield Argus Aug. 22, 1930

Charles Green, who has been living alone in the old Green homestead in the western part of the city for a number of years, was found dead on the floor of his home Wednesday evening by Harry Hammack, who had gone there on an errand. It was at first thought that he was a victim of heart trouble with which he had been troubled for some time, but a note was found which said that he was tired of living in hell with no friends, so it became evident that he had taken his own life on the previous day, using strychnine to accomplish his suicidal intentions, which facts were substantiated at the coroner's inquest held several hours later.

The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Green and was aged 60 years and five months, having spent his entire life in this city. He had never married and since the death of his mother had lived alone in the old family homestead. He had been suffering from heart trouble for several years and this condition may have caused his depression and resulted in the taking of his life. [Loftis.FTW]

Notes for Phillip Burl Green:

General Notes:

The Greenfield Argus

Four children in the home of Phillip Green were stricken with diphtheria last week, which caused much uneasiness among our people. Some of these children had been attending school days previous, and it was feared that the infection might spread, so the board of education dismissed two of the lower rooms on Friday last and disinfected them, but as so many of the pupils were kept at home it was thought best to close all the rooms except the high school for a week, which was done by an order of the board Monday night. Edith, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. Green, died on Monday from the effects of the contagion, but the other children are making satisfactory progress towards recovery, and as no cases have developed it is hoped the contagion will not give any further trouble.
